The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday June 11, to Saturday June 15, 1782.

St. James's, June 15.

THE following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Middleſex, has been preſented to the King by John Wilkes, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Middleſex, deſire your Majeſty to accept our Thanks for having complied with the Wiſhes of your People, by removing from your Councils thoſe Men, under whoſe Adminiſtration Calamities, ſo many and ſo great, have befallen your Kingdom; and by appointing your Majeſty's preſent Miniſters, in whom their Country had and are willing to have the fulleſt Confidence.

We have ſeen, with Sentiments of the moſt lively Gratitude, your Majeſty's Solicitude to alleviate the Burthens of your People, by recommending to Parliament a Syſtem of Public Œconomy, which we truſt will be carried into Effect; and that the Conſtitution will be ſecured by a fair and real Repreſentation of the Commons in Parliament, thereby effectually eradicating every Species of undue Influence.

We beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment, and our full Confidence that the Wiſdom and Vigour of your Majeſty's Councils will redeem the Honour and reſtore the Proſperity of all your Dominions.

By Order of the Meeting,

James Townſend, Chairman.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kent, has been preſented to the King by Colonel John Sawbridge, attended by the Honourable Major Charles Marſham, and Filmer Honywood, Eſq; Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, Sir John Honywood and Sir Horace Mann, Baronets, and Mr. Beckingham, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Kent.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

ATTACHED to your Royal Perſon and Family by every Tie of Loyalty and Affection, we beg Leave to return your Majeſty our cordial Thanks for having complied with the Wiſhes of your People, by making a Change in your Councils, and appointing thoſe Men to the Adminiſtration of Affairs, who, from their Abilities and Integrity, and from having pledged themſelves to Conſtitutional Liberty, are deſervedly the Favourites of the Public.

We entertain the moſt grateful Senſe of your Majeſty's benign Intentions to alleviate the Burdens of your People, by a Reform in your Civil Eſtabliſhment, and by your Recommendation to Parliament of an effectual Plan of Œconomy through every Branch of the Public Expenditure; and we feel the moſt perfect Satisfaction, that your Majeſty has no Reſerves with your People;—ſuch a Declaration cannot fail to produce in a loyal People an Emulation to convince your Majeſty, that your Reliance on their Affections for the true Honor of your Crown and Government is not miſplaced.

Permit us, gracious Sire, to congratulate your Majeſty on the late ſignal and important Succeſs of your Arms at a Period ſo critical to National Welfare; a Succeſs, which when directed to true political Effect by a wiſe Adminiſtration, will, we truſt, lead to the only juſtifiable Object of War,—an honourable Peace.

John Sawbridge, Chairman.

The following Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford, has been preſented to the King by Francis William Thomas Brydges, Eſq; Sheriff, and Sir George Cornewall, Bart. one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders, of the County of Hereford, preſume to lay before your Throne the moſt grateful Sentiments we feel of your Majeſty's paternal Care and Regard for your faithful Subjects, in diſmiſſing from your Councils thoſe Miniſters, whoſe pernicious Meaſures had nearly effectuated the Ruin of your Kingdoms, and in placing your Royal Confidence in thoſe, of whoſe Abilities we had unqueſtionable Proofs, and in whoſe Integrity we reſt an unlimited Reliance.

Deeply impreſſed with Gratitude for your Majeſty's Goodneſs in adverting to the Diſtreſſes of your People, we beg Leave alſo to tender our ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for your Solicitude to alleviate their Burthens, by recommending to Parliament a Syſtem of Public Œconomy; and at the ſame Time we congratulate your Majeſty on the late ſignal Victory obtained by your Arms, we doubt not but by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty, and the Prudence of your Miniſters, the further Operations tions of War againſt our natural Enemies, will be carried on with ſuch Vigour and Succeſs, as will eſtabliſh the Honour and Dignity of your Crown, and inſure the permanent Happineſs and Proſperity of your People.

F. W. T. Brydges, Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge has been preſented to the King by Philip Yorke, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid County, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, Freeholders and other Inhabitants of the County of Cambridge, beg Leave to approach your Throne; and we approach it, we preſume, with a well grounded Confidence that you will be graciouſly pleaſed to accept the Thanks which we thus tender to your Majeſty for your paternal Goodneſs to your People, ſhewn in confiding your Councils, and the Adminiſtration of Public Meaſures, to Men of approved Integrity, conſummate Ability, intelligent Activity, undoubted Loyalty, and firm Attachment to the genuine Conſtitution of their Country. Under the Auſpices of ſuch an Adminiſtration, we truſt that our Enemies of the Houſe of Bourbon, will yet be humbled; that our ancient Allies will ſee Cauſe to regret their new Connections; and that our Brethren in America will not be averſe from Peace; and we ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty on the late important Succeſs of your Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, as probable Means of effectuating theſe Ends.

Perſuaded, that by ſuch Miniſters our Money will not be miſapplied, we will with Chearfulneſs ſubmit to every Burthen which may enable your Majeſty to convince the Powers of Europe, that you have the ſingular Felicity of reigning over a free and magnanimous People, impatient of every the moſt diſtant Tendency to Deſpotiſm, but beyond all others, affectionate to their Prince, and zealous for His Honour.

Convinced that a Syſtem of Parliamentary Corruption is derogatory from the Wiſdom and Equity of your Majeſty's Government, expenſive to the State, and ruinous to the Conſtitution, we beg Leave to expreſs our hearty Approbation of the Meaſures which your Majeſty's Miniſters have taken in Parliament to deſtroy it; and at the ſame Time to teſtify our moſt cordial Thanks to your Majeſty, for the Greatneſs of Mind diſplayed in your concurring with ſuch ſalutary Councils. What more remains to be done, we doubt not will be done, with as juſt a Regard for the Monarchical as for the Democratical Part of the Conſtitution, for we are not of Thoſe who wiſh to ſee the Conſtitution altered, but reſtored to its original Purity.

Signed, as the unanimous Act of the County Meeting, by me,

Henry Pointer Standly, High Sheriff.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of Briſtol, has been preſented to the King by Mathew Brickdale, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the Effuſions of the Publick Joy, flowing from the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in various Parts of the Globe, and particularly from the great and important Victory obtained by that gallant and ſucceſsful Veteran, Lord Rodney, and your powerful and well directed Fleet in the Weſt Indies, (as well as the Capture of the French Tranſports deſtined for the Eaſt Indies, by Admiral Barrington) your dutiful and loyal Subjects the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of Briſtol, in their Guildhall aſſembled, pray Leave to approach your Throne, to teſtify their Participation in the general Happineſs.

We rejoice in that your Majeſty's paternal Goodneſs has already anticipated the Wiſhes of your People, by dignifying with the firſt Rate Honours, thoſe great and illuſtrious Commanders, by whoſe perſevering Valour and ſagacious Skill the haughty Armament of France has been diſperſed, her Battle Ships captured, the Security of your Majeſty's Poſſeſſions eſtabliſhed, and the diſputed Empire of the Sea vindicated to your triumphant Flag.

Deeply connected in the Commerce of the Iſlands, we feel more than a common Share of Intereſt in theſe great and important Fruits of Victory, and acknowledge to every Individual of that Fleet, whoſe active and undaunted Courage exerted itſelf on that Day, the juſt Tribute of Gratitude and Honour: To your Majeſty we tender our ſincere Congratulations on an Event, honourable to the Nation, glorious to your Reign, and peculiarly acceptable to a Breaſt animated with the Royal Wiſh of rendering to your People a ſafe, a permanent, and honourable Peace: And to the Sovereign Diſpoſer of all Events we offer Praiſe and Thanks, imploring Him to multiply theſe His Bleſſings, and continue to your Majeſty and your lateſt Poſterity, to wear the Crown of theſe Realms with undiminiſhed Luſtre, and rule in the Hearts of a free and united People.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Glouceſter, has been preſented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord North, Recorder, and Charles Barrow, Eſq; One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of the City of Glouceſter, in General Meeting aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Citizens and Inhabitants of Glouceſter, beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with the moſt joyful and heart-felt Congratulations on the late glorious Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, and in other Parts of the Globe.

The Conduct and Bravery of the gallant Admiral who commanded your Majeſty's Fleet in the late Battle with the French in the Weſt Indies, and the valiant and unanimous Exertions with which he was ſo nobly ſupported by the other Admirals, and all the Officers and Men under his Command, afford us compleat Satisfaction in the happy Event of that Day.

Your Majeſty's faithful Subjects have confident Hope that theſe will be the happy Earneſt of further Victories, and ſincerely pray, that it may pleaſe the Divine Providence to crown your Majeſty's Arms with ſuch Succeſs, as may force your Enemies to ſubmit to a ſafe, juſt and honourable Peace.

The

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, has been preſented to the King by Sir Charles Warwick Bampfylde, Bart. One of the Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of Exeter, in Chamber aſſembled, preſume to approach the Throne, to offer to your Majeſty our warmeſt Congratulations on the late Succeſſes with which it has pleaſed the Divine Providence to bleſs your Majeſty's Arms, and particularly on the great and deciſive Victory gained in the Weſt Indies over the French Fleet, under the Command of the Count De Graſſe, no leſs important to the Intereſts of this Country, than honourable to the Commanders, Officers, and Seamen of your Majeſty's Fleet, by whoſe Bravery, exemplary Conduct, and united Efforts, the Superiority and Splendour of the Britiſh Flag have been nobly ſupported.

We cannot but look forward, with Satisfaction, to the happy Conſequences of this Event, which, in the Proſecution of the War, or in promoting your Majeſty's gracious Endeavours to bring it ſpeedily to an End, is replete with the moſt ſolid Advantages; and we hope and truſt, that your Majeſty will ſoon be enabled to defeat the Deſigns of the ſeveral Powers combined againſt this Country, and to obtain, what we are well aſſured has been the conſtant Object of your Majeſty's Wiſhes, a laſting and honourable Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, this Eleventh Day of June, 1782.

The following Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, has been preſented to the King by Thomas Scott and Richard Beckford, Eſqrs. Repreſentatives in Parliament for the ſaid Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes and Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Bridport.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

IMPRESSED with the deepeſt Veneration for the Conſtitution of our Country, animated with the ſtricteſt Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, we, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiffs, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Bridport, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmeſt Expreſſions of Gratitude to your Majeſty for having graciouſly complied with the Wiſhes of your People, by making a Change in your Majeſty's Councils, and taking thoſe Perſons into your Confidence who are univerſally reſpected for their Conſtitutional Principles and diſtinguiſhed Abilities, and whoſe Endeavours to promote the true Intereſt and Proſperity of this Country, we truſt, by the Bleſſing of Providence, will be crowned with Succeſs.

We rejoice in your Majeſty's gracious Diſpoſition to alleviate the Burdens of an extenſive War by your paternal Example, and your Recommendation of an effectual Plan of Œnonomy through all the Branches of the Public Expenditure. It is our moſt ſincere and fervent Wiſh, that your Majeſty may long live to reign over a brave, free and united People.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough, the Twenty-ninth Day of May, One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-two.

War-Office, June 11, 1782.

WHEREAS there may be on Board His Majeſty's Ships of War, many Deſerters from the Land Service, who deſerted before His Majeſty's Proclamation of the 4th of laſt Month, and who have not had it in their Power to ſurrender to any regular Corps of Infantry, in order to take the Benefit of the Proclamation: It is His Majeſty's Pleaſure that all ſuch Deſerters, upon ſurrendering themſelves to the Commanding Officers of the ſaid Ships of War, and continuing to ſerve as Seamen, ſhall be entitled to His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Pardon.

By His Majeſty's Command,
THO. TOWNSHEND.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1782.

WHEREAS there are at this Time ſeveral Deſerters from the different Diviſions of His Majeſty's Marine Forces, who might be induced to return to their Duty by an Offer of Pardon, and that ſuch Inſtance of Clemency would have due Influence on their future Behaviour; My Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, in order to encourage them to return to their Duty, and to remove their Apprehenſions of the Puniſhment due to their Crime, do hereby give Notice, that ſuch of the ſaid Deſerters as ſhall ſurrender themſelves at any of the aforeſaid Diviſions at Portſmouth, Plymouth, or Chatham, or to any Recruiting Party of the Marines in Great Britain or Ireland, on or before the 30th Day of June next, will receive His Majeſty's Free Pardon.

And whereas ſeveral of the ſaid Deſerters have been apprehended and are now in Goal or Military Cuſtody, their Lordſhips do hereby further give Notice, that His Majeſty's Free Pardon will be extended to them alſo, of which they are to have the Benefit upon their Arrival at any of the Marine Head-Quarters.

And any Marine who may deſert after this Public Notice of His Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions, will not be included in the above Pardon, but be proceeded againſt with the utmoſt Severity.

Ph. Stephens.

Admiralty-Office, May 14, 1782.

WHEREAS many Seamen have, from Time to Time, inconſiderately deſerted His Majeſty's Service, by leaving the Ships they belonged to, as they could find Opportunity for ſo doing, or having been put on Shore Sick from His Majeſty's Ships, either into Hoſpitals or Sick Quarters, have made ſo ill a Return to the Care taken for their Healths as to deſert from His Majeſty's Service, when ſo far recovered as to be able to withdraw themſelves from the ſaid Hoſpitals or Sick Quarters; for which Crimes they have incurred the Loſs of their Wages, and are puniſhable with Death by a Court Martial: But my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty being willing to impute ſuch Deſertion into a Raſhneſs which moſt of them ſoon repent of, and believing that they would return to their Ships, were it not from Apprehenſions of Puniſhment; in order therefore to remove ſuch Apprehenſions, and encourage them to return to their Duty, their Lordſhips do hereby declare, That if any Perſons who have deſerted as aforeſaid ſhall, on or before the Thirtieth Day of June next, return to the Ships to which they did belong, or, in caſe thoſe Ships are gone Abroad, enter themſelves on Board ſome other of His Majeſty's Ships, they ſhall not be puniſhed in any Manner whatſoever, on Account of the Crimes they have committed in withdrawing themſelves from His Majeſty's Service as aforeſaid, excepting ſuch as have been guilty of Mutiny, or any other notorious Crimes: And, as a further Encouragement, their Lordſhips are pleaſed to declare, that ſuch as ſhall ſo return ſhall have their R^s taken off, and be paid their Wages for the Ships from which they reſpectively deſerted; but their Lordſhips do alſo think fit to declare, that all Perſons under the above-mentioned Circumſtances, who do not make a proper Uſe of the Indulgence hereby offered them, will be ſtrictly ſought after, and, (in caſe they are apprehended) brought to a Court Martial, and treated as the Law directs.

Ph. Stephens,

Office of Ordnance, May 3, 1782.

Whereas Shipping is wanted for Government Service; Notice it hereby given, that Propoſals in Writing, ſealed up, addreſſed to the Maſter-General of the Ordnance, and marked on the Outſide, "Propoſals for Shipping," will be opened in the Preſence of ſuch Perſons who may offer Ships fit for the Service.

London, June 11, 1782.

NOtice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of His Majeſty's Ship Rainbow and Sloop Hope, that they will be paid their reſpective Shares of the Prizes undermentioned, on Wedneſday the 26th Inſtant, at the French Horn, Crutched Friars; and the Shares not then demanded will be recalled at the ſame Place, the Laſt Wedneſday in every Month for Three Years to come, viz. The Rainbow, for Brig les Deux Amis, and Ship York, captured by their Tender called the Arbuthnot, in Company with the Cabot: Hope, for for Head-money, Bunkerhill Privateer, and Goods ſaved out of the Conſtant.

For Alex. Thomſon, of Halifax, Nova Scotia, Agent,
Rob. Grant.
Pat. Thomſon.

Shrewſbury, May 18, 1782.

IF Thomas Rogers, Blackſmith, Son of Thomas Rogers, late of Berrington in the County of Salop, Blackſmith, deceaſed, be living, and will apply to Mr. Loxdale, of Shrewſbury, or to Mr. William Rogers, at Smethcote near Shrewſbury, he may hear of ſomething to his Advantage; or if the ſaid Thomas Rogers is dead, and any Body will give Information of the Time and Place of his Death and Burial, he ſhall be ſatisfied for his Trouble.

The ſaid Thomas Rogers left Shropſhire about Sixteen Years ago, and went to London, and is ſaid to have worked with one Snapps, in ſome Part of the Coun y of Middleſex.

ELizabeth Keill, Widow, formerly Elizabeth Underwood, Widow of David Keill, if ſhe is living, and will apply to Mr. Gregory, Attorney, at Waxchandlers-hall, London, or to Mr. Adams, Attorney, in Mark-lane, London, ſhe will hear of ſomething very greatly to her Advantage: Or if any Perſon knows her Place of Reſidence, and will give Information thereof as above, ſo that ſhe may be found; or if ſhe is dead, and any Perſon can prove her Death, the Perſon ſo giving Information of her Reſidence, (if living) or, on making ſatisfactory Proof of her Death, (if deceaſed) ſhall be handſomely rewarded.

The above Elizabeth Keill was formerly Elizabeth Underwood, and married January 2, 1776, at St. Martin's in the Fields in Middleſex, to David Keill, who was then a Dealer in Pictures, and died about Three Years afterwards at Portſmouth or Goſport. Mrs. Keill, at the Time of her Marriage, lived with Mrs. Phillips at Greenwich, and afterwards worked for Mr. Timewell, Haberdaſher, of Taviſtock-ſtreet, and was ſeen about Chriſtmas, 1780, in the Neighbourhood of Tower-hill and the Minories.

NOtice is hereby given, that the Partnerſhip between us, Abraham Froud and William Stephens, of the City of New Sarum in the County of Wilts, Mercers, is this Day abſolutely diſſolved and determined; and that the ſaid William Stephens has purchaſed of the ſaid Abraham Froud his Share of the ſaid joint Trade, and taken upon himſelf the Partnerſhip Debts. All Perſons having any Demands on the ſaid Abraham Froud and William Stephens, on Account of the ſaid Copartnerſhip, are to apply to the ſaid William Stephens for Payment; and all Perſons indebted to the ſaid Copartnerſhip, are to pay their reſpective Debts to the ſaid William Stephens only. Witneſs our Hands, this 31ſt Day of May, 1782.

Abr. Froud.
Wm. Stephens.

Cateaton-ſtreet, June 5, 1782.

NOtice is hereby given, that the Partnerſhip between John Shakeſhaft, Richard Preſton, and Hugh Stirrup, was, by mutual Conſent, this Day diſſolved. All Perſons indebted to the ſaid Concern are deſired to pay the ſame to John Shakeſhaft and Hugh Stirrup; by whom the Buſineſs will be continued, and all Demands on the above Partnerſhip duly diſcharged.

J. Shakeſhaft.
Rich. Preſton.
Hugh Stirrup.
